support to help Indigenous people bridge the gap from rural to urban living

Our Core Services

The Youth Life Promotion Program is founded on principles of self-determination and cultural reclamation for at-risk urban Indigenous youth. Through this program, youth will have access to culture camps which will provide youth with access to land and water based activities, as well as access to traditional knowledge and teachings.

Land Based Programming

Reconnecting youth with the land and water.

Culturally Relevant Activities

Reconnecting youth with their culture.

Leadership Skills

Providing a group work setting to teach leadership and teamwork skills.

Program Integration

Working alongside other programs and agencies to provide inclusive and collaborative programming.

Low Barrier Entry

All are welcome to participate
