Kind men respect
and honor Women.
Kind men respect
and honor Men.
Kind men respect
all that is sacred.

ABOUT US

The Kizhaay Anishinaabe Niin program encourages Indigenous youth and men to speak out against violence towards women.

The name was gifted by late Elder Peter O'Chiese, who understood the importance of men's responsibilities in a traditional family role.

Elder O'Chiese explicitly conveyed that our teachings require men to be kind.

PROGRAM GOALS

The goal of our program is to reduce violence against Indigenous women through the education and rehabilitation of at-risk male youth and adults.
